

RE: Docket # 02-278

It is my opinion that banks should not be removed from the do not call list! They are the worst offenders of sales calls to my home. Due to the recent low interest rates over the past 2 years, banks are heavy solicitors for re-finiancing. Therefore I am strongly against them being removed from the do not call list!

I appreciate your consideration of my concerns.

Kristy Reilly